

Annual Report 2001

Bringing together public, private, and civic sector organizations engaged in community planning in Hamilton County so that mutual goals related to physical, economic and social issues can be planned for comprehensively and achieved collaboratively.

From the Planning Partnership Officers

Richard Huddleston Chairperson Springdale Representative

Robert Schuler Chairperson-Elect Sycamore Township Representative

Donald Mooney Vice-Chairperson City of Cincinnati Representative

To Our Partners and Friends:

As we finish a year full of initiatives and new expectations, we are proud to include for your review the 2001 Planning Partnership Annual Report. The Partnership provides a forum for highly motivated individuals and jurisdictions committed to make things happen! The attached report is a testimony of such a commitment. Thanks for your continued support.

In the year 2002 we expect to continue in the successful path initiated only 15 months ago. The contribution that your community or organization provides, in the form of fees and volunteer time, allows us to leverage additional resources and serve you better.

This report provides an overview of progress on current initiatives, membership, committee work programs, collaborative agreements, funding, and a 2002 outlook.

With your help, we have established a strong foundation for the Planning Partnership and already achieved a multitude of milestones — a great beginning.

Milestones

- On September 27, 2000, held its first meeting with the 16 initial jurisdiction members of the Regional Planning Commission and the Reorganization Committee.
- In November 2000, the Planning Partnership distributed a Community Values Survey to 4,500 Hamilton County households to gauge public opinion on priorities and growth in the county.
- On January 11, 2001, the Planning Partnership held a press conference announcing the results of the Community Values Survey.
- On March 22, 2001, the Planning Partnership elected its officers: Richard Huddleston, Chairperson; Robert Schuler, Chairperson-Elect; and Donald Mooney, Vice-Chairperson.
- On April 12, 2001, the Planning Partnership adopted bylaws for governance of the organization.
- In May 2001, the Partnership formalized an agreement to become a collaborative partner in the Hamilton County Stormwater Study (Clean Water Act Phase II Stormwater Management Plan).
- In July 2001, the Partnership was awarded a grant from the Regional Initiatives Fund to develop a Certification Program for Planning Commissioners.
- From August to October 2001, the Partnership facilitated the Capital Improvement Priorities Workshop Series and Forum.
- On November 29, 2001, the Organizational Strategy (Strategic Plan) for the Planning Partnership was adopted.
- In October 2001, the Planning Partnership convened an alliance of the Metropolitan Sewer District, the Hamilton County Water and Soil Conservation District, the Mill Creek Restoration Project, and the Mill Creek Watershed Council to develop the "Stormwater Management Education: Train the Trainers Program."
- In October 2001, the Partnership began the public participation phase of Community COMPASS by holding 11 public forums, a youth forum, and an Internet online forum. Over 2,800 ideas were collected with over 600 participants.
- In November 2001, Partnership volunteers helped to condense the citizen input from public forums into 12 broad goals for Hamilton County and four interconnected core issues related to Hamilton County's vision.
- On November 9, 2001, the Planning Partnership convened the first meeting of the Capital Improvement Priorities (CIP) Steering Team.
- On November 27, 2001, the Partnership co-sponsored a Planning Charette/Workshop in the City of Silverton and initiated an annual Hamilton County Planning Day to promote community planning and revitalization in local communities.
- On December 8, 2001, the first Introductory Workshop for Newly Elected Officials was held.
- On January 12, 2002, as a part of Community COMPASS(Comprehensive Plan and Strategies for Hamilton County) the Partnership hosted a Countywide Town Meeting with an attendance of 1,300 participants. The meeting resulted in modification to and validation of the Countywide Vision that evolved from the various Community Forums.

Countywide Town Meeting, January 12, 2002.

Membership

During this 15-month period, the membership of the Partnership has increased to 37 members — 27 jurisdiction members, the Hamilton County Board of County Commissioners, and nine affiliate members (private and civic sector organizations).

Committees

The Partnership now has seven permanent committees (Executive, Nominating, Membership, Organizational Strategy, Governance/Bylaws, Program, and Funding) and four ad hoc committees (Community COMPASS, Capital Improvement Priorities [CIP], Planning Commissioners' Training and Cost of Government Services).

In addition to the initiatives of the committees listed above, the Partnership is also engaged in the Planning Commissioners' Stormwater Management Education Train-the-Trainers Program and various efforts related to business district revitalization. The Partnership initiated the first annual Hamilton County Town Planning Day and, on that day, co-sponsored the first Town Planning Charette/workshop in the City of Silverton.

Summary of Committee Structure

Agreements and Institutional Collaboration

- In May 2001, an agreement was reached to become a collaborative partner in the Hamilton County Stormwater Study (Clean Water Act Phase II Stormwater Management Plan). Deanna Kuennen has been appointed to serve as the Planning Partnership liaison on the Stormwater Committee.
- A task force made up of representatives from the Planning Partnership, the Metropolitan Sewer District, The Hamilton County Water & Soil Conservation District, the Mill Creek Restoration Project, and the Mill Creek Watershed Council convened in October 2001 to develop the "Stormwater Management Education: Train the Trainers Program."
- An agreement between the Planning Partnership and the School of Planning of the University of Cincinnati was signed in the Fall of 2001 to provide a graduate assistant to staff Planning Partnership initiatives and to cosponsor the Certified Planning Commissioners Program.
- On October 9, 2001, the Partnership received the Hamilton County Municipal League's endorsement of the Community COMPASS process.

Planning Partnership Organizational Strategy Major Initiatives

Communication and Outreach

The Planning Partnership:

- Publishes a quarterly newsletter called UPDATE.
- Maintains a web site: http://www.planningpartnership.org
- Maintains a ListServ: PlanningPartnerNet.
- Provides its members with a Directory of Planning Partnership representatives and committee members.
- Assesses the effectiveness of the Partnership and its initiatives, and identifies common needs and problems to the members through the Annual Survey.
- Hosts a workshop for newly elected officials after the November election.
- Has a Speakers Bureau made of Planning Partnership representatives and staff readily available for informational presentations.

Certified Planning Commissioners' Program

"Making Great Communities — The Certified Planning Commissioners' Program" is a 16-hour workshop designed for the planning commissioners (citizen planners) interested in acquiring the basic knowledge to perform the role of planning commissioner, as well as for the seasoned planning commissioner looking for a refresher course and updated information. The Certification Program is being developed through a grant from the Regional Initiatives Fund. The first course will be offered in March 2002.

Capital Improvement Priorities Setting Workshop and Forum

Planning Partnership Explores Options for the County

In what could be a milestone in the way public, private, and civic sector organizations prioritize projects for funding requests, the Planning Partnership of Hamilton county convened a meeting on November 9, 2001, with an attendance of legislators, lobbyists, government officials, and interested citizens. This session was the fourth in a series of information meetings that allowed participants to learn how other communities and organizations work together to set priorities.

Ohio State Representative Patricia Clancy, Majority Floor Leader for the 124th General Assembly, was joined by Bob Schuler, Director of Economic Development for Sycamore Township (and member of Ohio House of Representatives 1993–2000); Joe Cottrill, Hamilton County Engineer's Office's District Liaison; Mike Hammons, President of Forward Quest, Inc.; and Joe Wind, Assistant Vice President for Community and Government Relations at Northern Kentucky University, in a panel that discussed alternative methods for working together to communicate our needs more effectively to legislators.

The Planning Partnership's goal is to develop consensus on a prioritization process for improving the efficiency and effectiveness of Hamilton county communities in competing for regional, state, and federal funds. This initiative is being designed to enable Hamilton County to assess and prioritize local and countywide needs, maximize collective strength, minimize internal competition, and communicate cohesive goals of Hamilton County communities to legislators so that they can work together more effectively as a united voice for our communities.

Patricia Clancy, State Representative from the 35th Ohio House District, was the keynote speaker at the October 2001 Planning Partnership

Community COMPASS

Comprehensive Master Plan and Strategies for Hamilton County

■ Community Values Survey

In November 2000, a citizen survey was sent to 4,500 households to help identify citizen values and priorities for the county. The results of this survey were released on January 11, 2001, at a press conference at the Cincinnati Museum Center. A key finding of interest to the Planning Partnership was that citizens overwhelmingly support more cooperation between jurisdictions on development issues.

■ Community Forums

During October 2001, Community COMPASS hosted 11 Community Forums at various locations around the county. Hamilton County residents and stakeholders met in small groups to encourage citizens to discuss ideas and issues concerning their desired future for Hamilton County. Four-hundred county residents participated in the 11 Community Forums, submitting over 1,000 ideas.

■ Youth Forum

On October 9, 2001, almost 200 students and faculty members from 32 Hamilton County high schools met at Paul Brown Stadium to discuss their ideas and concerns for Hamilton County's future. As a kick-off to the Community Forums phase of Community COMPASS, students participated in small group discussions led by graduate students from the University of Cincinnati's Planning School. Students shared their hopes and concerns for Hamilton County with their peers, generating over 800 ideas.

Comprehensive Master Plan and Strategies for Hamilton County (continued)

■ Internet Online Forum

At the end of October, a two-week on-line idea-gathering session was held for all those who were unable to attend one of the Community Forums. Over 400 Hamilton County residents and stakeholders participated in the on-line forum, generating over 1,000 ideas. The on-line forum gave everyone the opportunity to have their voice heard in determining the county's future.

■ Countywide Town Meeting

More than 1,300 Hamilton County residents and stakeholders met on January 12, 2002, to take part in the Countywide Town Meeting for Community COMPASS. Every race, age, economic, and geographic group participated in small group discussions that surrounded four core issues:

- Assuring economic prosperity
- Building collaborative decision-making
- Embracing diversity and equity
- Balancing development and the environment

With the information gained from the Countywide Town Meeting, the Community Forums and the participation of public, private, and civic sectors of our community, the Planning Partnership has successfully facilitated the development of a vision for Hamilton County's future.

Funding

The Planning Partnership has leveraged its funding from membership fees and Hamilton County's general fund by obtaining grants and awards from philanthropic foundations and corporate sponsors, including the Greater Cincinnati Foundation, Kettering Foundation, Regional Initiatives Fund, Seasongood Foundation, Fifth Third Bank, Greater Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, Miller-Valentine Group, Time Warner Cable, Charter Research Institute, and Leadership Cincinnati Alumni Association.

2002 Outlook

In 2002 the Planning Partnership will further develop and strengthen programs and initiatives originated in 2001 (see Major Initiatives and Committee Structure on pages 6 and 7). The enthusiasm of the Partners will also likely enable additional projects as proposed in the Partnership's Strategic Plan. The Planning Partnership will continue to provide a forum for open discussion and a concerted search for solutions to common problems through multi-jurisdictional cooperation and leveraged resources.

Highlights and What to Expect in 2002

- Annual meeting
- "Making Great Communities" Certified Planning Commissioners' program in the winter and fall
- Introductory workshop for newly elected officials
- Quarterly forums on selected topics
- Planning Partnership UPDATE newsletter, quarterly distribution
- ■ Partnership directory
- ■ External Influences Report

A series of 15 whitepapers will analyze how Hamilton County will be impacted by major influences on American metropolitan areas.

■ Data Book

A profile of Hamilton County's existing conditions will assist in what will be the process of moving from a countywide vision to implementation strategies.

■ Cost of Government Services Study

Data from 49 political jurisdictions in Hamilton County will be used to map fiscal trends and service levels.

■ Population Projections Report

Recently released Census 2000 data will be used to build a county database for projecting and tracking population change.

■ Economic Analysis Report

Changes in the structure and direction of the county's economy will be analyzed, the county's comparative advantage will be identified, and industry clusters will be defined.

■ COMPASS — A Vision for Hamilton County's Future

A summary report of the results from the Countywide Town Meeting will include goals and objectives for Hamilton County and participant responses.

■ COMPASS Action Teams (CATs)

Various teams and subcommitees will build upon the results of the Countywide Town Meeting by identifying and clarifying problems and opportunities and generating strategies to implement the Vision for Hamilton County. Specific recommendations for implementation will result from the input already gathered at community forums and the Countywide Town Meeting, as well as additional research.

■ COMPASS Strategies

A summary report of the COMPASS Action Teams and subcommittees will identify the methods for achieving Hamilton County's goals and specify objective measures of success.

■ COMPASS Strategic Partnerships

Coalitions of businesses, jurisdictions, and organizations (public, private, and civic sectors) will be initiated to champion and sustain the implementation of the Vision for Hamilton County.

Countywide Town Meeting, January 12, 2002, Memorial Hall.
